Tax Act

Since the publication of our article of yesterday relative to the Stamp Act, and the time fixed by Congress for it to take effect, we have been furnished with the following communication from Judge Deady which throws additional light upon the subject. According to his interpretation of the act, which we doubt not is perfectly correct, it appears that no instrument made, signed or issued after the first day of October, 1862, shall be of any effect or binding force unless the same is stamped; but a privilege seems to be granted of allowing such instruments to be used as evidence in Court, provided the party making, giving, or issuing said instrument shall before offering the same as evidence cause the same to be properly stamped and further produce satisfactory evidence to said Court that he has paid the sum of five dollars to the United States Collector for the [illegible] of the United States. Whether the payment of five dollars as provided will have the effect to make the instrument legal in all respects the same as if it had been stamped is not quite clear, and whether a person is relieved from the penal liability provided in Section 95 of said act is also questionable. It is perfectly clear, however, that no instrument enumerated in the schedule of said act made, signed or issued after the first of January, 1863, shall be of any effect whatever, unless the same is stamped as provided by law. And further, that the person or persons making or issuing said instruments without being properly stamped, shall incur a penalty of fifty dollars; hence, the necessity as before remarked by us, of attending to this matter immediately by all who may be necessarily compelled to use said stamps.

PORTLAND, Oct. 28, 1862.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Having read an article in your paper of this morning, concerning the Stamp Act, I give you a synopsis of the action of Congress, compiled from the laws of the last session of that body, as to when the act takes effect. The provisions concerning stamps are a part of the Internal Revenue Act, commonly called the "Tax Act," which was approved July 1st, 1862. The 94th section of the Tax Act provides that stamps shall be payable after the 1st day of October, 1862. Section 95 provides, in effect, that any person who shall make, sign or issue any instrument in the schedule specified, without the same being stamped shall "incur a penalty of fifty dollars," and "that such instrument shall be deemed invalid and of no effect." Section 24 of the Act approved July 14, 1862, and commonly called the "Tariff Act," modified the 95th Section above mentioned, to this effect: so that any such instrument, "made, signed or issued before the 1st day of January 1863" without being stamped, should not for that cause be deemed invalid and of no effect: provided that no such instrument shall be used as evidence in any Court, until the same shall have been duly stamped, and the holder thereof shall have proved to the satisfaction of the Court, that he has paid to the Collector of the District the sum of five dollars for the use of the United States. Subsequently by a joint resolution approved July 17, 1862, it was declared that the Tax Act should not go into effect until a day to be named by the Secretary of the Treasury, not later than the 1st of October, 1862, so far as the same required anything to be done before the 1st day of July or August, 1862.

From these provisions it appears that an instrument not stamped and made before first of January, 1863, is not for that reason invalid, but it cannot be used as evidence without the stamp being affixed before it is offered in evidence, and the payment of the sum of five dollars to the Collector. The penal clause of Sec. 95 is not directly repealed, and whether it is repealed by implication, because the act against which it is directed is allowed or tolerated, is a question for the Courts. The joint resolution of July 17, 1862, does not seem to have any bearing upon the question of the time when stamps are payable, because under it the operation of the act can only be suspended until the 1st of October, 1862, and so far as stamps are concerned the original act did not take effect before that time.

Yours, M. P. DEADY.

THE FIRE IN POWELL'S VALLEY.—The fire spoken of in our paper of Monday is still burning, and fears are entertained of more damage if the wind rises. The fire spread on Friday evening four miles in an hour and a half. M. Wing lost a barn containing fourteen tons of hay; J. J. Moore a lot of fencing; Wm. G. Cathay, a barn, with large quantity of hay and grain, and five thousand rails; K. Thomas, house and fencing, five thousand rails, orchard and wagon; Mrs. Hicks, widow, house and part of household goods, and all the fencing; E. G[illegible], barn and shed with fifteen tons of hay, fifty or sixty bushels of thrashed peas, and fourteen thousand feet of lumber valued at two hundred dollars; eight thousand rails, out houses, containing a quantity of butter, &c., and orchard injured. Harbaugh & Stitzel's mill $2,000—nothing saved. Lent & Marsh lost two hundred feet of lumber at the mill. Other people lost property in small amounts. The whole loss sustained in the neighborhood is estimated at $5,000.

BRIEF BUT FERVID.—The following appears in an Eastern paper:

If there had been no slavery there would have been no war. Peace and slavery will not amalgamate. Kentuckians! which will you take? LEONIDAS METCALF.

Division of Washington Territory

[illegible]

[illegible] We do not quite [illegible] the above, but presume [illegible] its general meaning, and [illegible] particular Confederacy [illegible]. We have but little doubt that a memorial will pass the Legislature of that Territory at its next session asking Congress for a division; but whether the petition will be granted or not is a matter of doubt. That a division will ultimately be made we have not the least doubt; but the present unsettled state of the country may cause delay for years to come.

FROM THE UPPER COUNTRY.—We take the following items from the Walla Walla Statesman of October 25th:

MILITARY.—Brig. Gen. Alvord and Major Francis arrived at Fort Walla Walla on Sunday morning last. A salute of thirteen guns was fired in honor of their arrival. General Alvord left for Lewiston on Tuesday, for the purpose as we learn of making arrangements for the establishment of a military post on the Nez Perces Reservation. A company of the Washington Territory Infantry left for the same place on Wednesday morning.

Major Francis proceeded to Fort Colville on Monday, accompanied by an escort from this post. He goes up for the purpose of paying off the volunteers at that place.

The company which has for some time past been stationed at the Umatilla Reservation was ordered thence on Monday, and is now at this post.

An express has been sent out to meet Col. Maury's command on the plains with instructions for them to proceed without delay to this post.

From what information we can gather, Gen. Alvord is initiating a change of policy in the management of the volunteer forces under his command. In addition to the post to be established on the Nez Perces Reservation, it is intimated that temporary posts are also to be established at other points in the upper country, and that the forces instead of being concentrated at one point will be scattered about in places where they may be of service to the country.

An impression has obtained currency that Col. Steinberger has been removed from the command of the forces at this post. This is a mistake, and we take pleasure in correcting it. The Colonel is ordered to the Nez Perces Reservation, to be present with a company of troops, at the conference between the Treaty Commission and the Indians, at the close of which we understand he is to return to this post.

SALE OF THE EMIGRANT ESCORT PROPERTY.—The announcement that this property would be sold at auction in this city on Tuesday last, brought together a large number of people to be present at the sale. All the property of the escort went off readily and at fair figures. The six mule teams and wagons sold at an average of $793. A number of mules were sold at an average of $60, and several horses at $55. The rifles went off readily at $21, and the revolvers at $20. The net proceeds of the sale amounted to $13,[illegible]7.

DANIEL WEBSTER IN HIS COFFIN.—We find the following account of the private funeral of Colonel Fletcher Webster, and of the inspection of his illustrious father's remains, in a late issue of the Plymouth (Mass.) Rock.

The tomb at Marshfield once again opens wide its portals to receive the last of the sons of the "Great Expounder."

The funeral of Colonel Fletcher Webster took place at his residence in Marshfield on Wednesday, September 10th. The body was brought down from Boston in a richly caparisoned hearse, with four horses, by way of Hingham and South Shore. Several coaches conveyed his Boston friends from the Kingston depot, while a large assemblage gathered from the neighboring towns. Rev. Mr. Alden, the village pastor, conducted the services, the body resting on his father's writing table in the library, according to his dying request. A large procession followed his body to the tomb, where the body was deposited with the family whom the nation mourns.

By request of Peter Harvey and others the oaken box containing the great statesman's coffin was opened and the metallic cover of the glass removed. How were the feelings of those personal friends stirred within them to find those lineaments and features which no man ever looked upon to forget, retaining the same color and impress, natural as when ten years ago they gave him up to the grave.

The eyes were more sunken, but the heavy shadows beneath the brows were always there in life. Even in death, and for a decade the captive of the grave, that kingly presence inspired the same deep reverence and speechless awe as when in the living temple of his matchless mind. Said one who looked upon his face again: "I forgot all else and cannot tell you anything of the tomb or surrounding objects." The velvet pall with its rich embroidery was in perfect preservation, though deprived of its primitive gloss.

In silence the lid was dropped and the box reclosed. Farewell thou great departed! Earth's communion with thee is o'er. No more shall human eye behold that face over which thought and feeling once flashed the light and shade of that imperial mind? Rest noble statesman, with the patriot sons. Thy memory still lives enshrined in a nation's admiration and gratitude.

APPOINTED.—We learn that Mr. W. T. Matlock, Receiver of the Land Office at Oregon City, has been appointed Depositary for the District of Oregon to receive deposits for Revenue Stamps, and to issue certificates the same as Mr. Cheeseman, Assistant Treasurer, at San Francisco. This will relieve our people the trouble of having to send their money to San Francisco for stamps, and will also accommodate them in the [illegible] of certificates at a much earlier day.

WHAT GEN. HOOKER SAYS.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune says that Gen. Hooker declared with great freedom that the proclamation was issued too late rather than too early; that the time had fully arrived when it was impossible to prosecute the war vigorously and with a certainty of success without it.

By Overland Telegraph.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 2[illegible].—News is very scarce. A report is current here which seems to be reliable, that the rebel General Van Dorn was killed by one of Price's staff officers. It appears that the two Generals had some difficulty when Van Dorn [illegible], but before he could fire he was shot as above mentioned.

The train which Morgan destroyed near Bardstown last Monday numbered one hundred and fifty two wagons. The correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says the rebels plundered 4,000 cavalry loaded wagons, several thousand cattle, [illegible] mules, and [illegible] horses, a greater part of which was taken in Kentucky.

In conversation with personal friends, at Mount Vernon, Ky., General Bragg is reported to have frankly acknowledged that only 1,[illegible] [illegible] recruits [illegible] Kentucky. He believed that more than that number had [illegible].

[illegible] 180 [illegible] Fortress Monroe [illegible] but little news. A dispatch from [illegible] Most of the [illegible] 00 wounded rebels had arrived at Iuka. The whole number of wounded in the battles of Corinth and Hatchie was 1,500. The rebel army in that vicinity is reported to be in low spirits. Gold is selling in Richmond at 1 ot [illegible] 170. Provisions are extremely high.

The Richmond Whig of the 20th in an editorial on affairs in Kentucky says: A retrograde movement has greatly disappointed and surprised our people, and dashed the fond hopes which they had formed for the liberation of Kentucky [illegible] W[illegible] [illegible] ally expected of the magnificent army of Bragg something more than a more encouraging [illegible] the neighborhood of the Ohio river; we anticipated nothing more than boastful [illegible] and sounding proclamations. [illegible] at Tupelo, his hesitancy at Chattanooga and his tardy advance into Kentucky have shaken public confidence in him. In Kentucky movements in the hands of Bragg have turned out to be simply a failure and an impotent one.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 25.—Humphrey Marshall's forces are retreating via Mount Vernon towards East Tennessee. His force numbers about 5,000. We have a force in pursuit, but as Marshall's forces are all mounted, they will doubtless escape.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—A person captured at the first battle of Bull Run has just arrived from Richmond and says the Merrimac No. 2 is nearly ready for service. She has iron plates placed on her and appears like an ugly customer. She is similar in construction to the old Merrimac, though not so large and more easily managed.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The Tribune's editorially says the last European advices render it morally certain that France and England will recognize the Southern Confederacy on the 1st of January, provided there be no change in the situation before that time. It also says there will soon be a battle near Winchester, and urges sending every available man to reinforce McClellan.

CHICAGO, Oct. 22.—A Cincinnati special says it is quite certain that Bragg has evaded Buell, and with all his forces safely passed through the gaps of the Cumberland mountains into Tennessee. Buell is said to be moving in such a direction as to support our forces at Nashville and aid preparations in the vicinity of Corinth.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 22.—Official returns from 70 counties, comprising more than half of the voting population of the State give the Democratic candidate for State Auditor 1800 majority.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 22.—John Morgan after destroying a train on Cox Creek collected his forces, 1,500 strong, and passed down in the direction of Elizabethtown, crossing the Lebanon branch road at Boston on Monday afternoon. He arrived at Elizabethtown the same night and destroyed bridges over Valley Creek. He also announced his determination to proceed to Mumfordsville.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23d.—The Express says there are rumors in Wall street this afternoon that at a Cabinet meeting held yesterday it was unanimously resolved to remove McClellan, and that General Hooker should succeed him.

CAIRO, Oct. 21.—It is reported that Island No. 10 was attacked and captured by the rebels. We have not been able, however, to trace this report to any reliable source. The steamer from Commerce, Mo., reports all quiet there.

BOSTON, October 21.—An explosion of the boiler at a flouring mill No. 58 Greenwich street this morning, killed four and seriously scalded some half dozen persons.

The Richmond Dispatch of October 1[illegible] says: We infer that the federals will soon make a desperate effort to force iron clad vessels up the James river past Drury's Bluff.

In its account of the Perryville fight, the Dispatch says it is one Kentucky will mourn for many years. The federal loss was heavy. The rebel forces fell back six miles.

The Examiner claims a victory at Perryville, Ky., and says the federal loss in killed, wounded and captured, was 20,000; the confederates loss 5,000.

The Examiner of October 17th says the Charleston (S. C.) people have had a celebration over the completion of the marine ram or ladies' gunboat.

CHICAGO, October 21st.—A special dispatch from Cincinnati says: Advices from General Cox, at Gallipolis, Ohio, report that the rebels have evacuated Western Virginia and gone to Eastern Tennessee, taking with them all their trains. They are said to have manufactured two hundred thousand bags of salt in the Kanawha Valley. Before leaving they destroyed all the salt works and other property. Gen. Cox expected to reach Charlestown, on the Kanawha, to-day.

NEW YORK, October 21st.—The Herald's Washington special dispatch says the pressure for a forward movement is becoming almost general. It is urged with an earnestness that has never been equalled. The argument is used that the protraction of our inaction will ruin the country.

A special dispatch from Fairfax, October 20th says: On the return of Gen. Stahl's expedition a small party was sent out toward Bristow Station, as it was understood that the enemy were there. The federal troops were met and attacked near Catlett's Station by about twice their number, whom they engaged at close quarters and succeeded in checking any further rebel advance. The party returned safely.

A dispatch dated Bolivar Heights, October 20th, says that the rebels who followed [illegible] Humphreys back to the river have their pickets again extended to the Potomac. There is occasional picket firing across the river. The roads of this section are hard, dry and in superb condition for marching. The heavy rains which render them impassable will not commence about the first of November.

Foreign News.

The London Times says Lincoln's emancipation proclamation is a political concession to the abolition wing of the Republican party, and denies the constitutional right of the President or Congress to abolish slavery. It adds that emancipation is a thunderbolt the President has assumed the right to launch without the power to enforce it. The North must conquer every square mile of the South be[fore] the [illegible] can [illegible] like a proclamation of [illegible] more effect than waste paper.

FIELD'S STEAMED OYSTERS!

MR. A. FIELD, whose Oysters have long enjoyed the highest reputation in this market, has recently invented an entirely new process of packing which possesses every advantage over the one hitherto employed. It so preserves the natural flavor, freshness and shape of the Oyster that they may be either Stewed, Fried, Scolloped or Fancy Roasted—in fact cooked in any manner adapted to those just taken from the shell. They will not be broken into pieces by land travel, however lengthy, and will retain their sweetness, after the can is cut, longer than secured by any other method.

Shipments arrived and for sale by all the Grocery Jobbers in San Francisco.

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin Book Store, and at Charles Barr's, Front street.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—A man by the name of Brady met with a horrible accident which it is feared will prove fatal at Harbaugh & Stutzel's saw mill North Portland yesterday afternoon. He had gone there for the purpose of grinding an ax, and upon attempting to place a large belt around the driving wheel attached to the stone, it caught his arm and dragged him round the wheel several times, finally breaking and tearing off the arm near the shoulder joint. Amputation of the lacerated stump was performed by Dr. Glisan, assisted by Drs Wilson Davenport and Elwert. The man was badly injured in other respects, and is considered in a dangerous condition.

ATHENIAN SOCIETY.—We understand that Hon. Amory Holbrook has agreed to deliver a public lecture for the benefit of the Portland Athenian Society, the proceeds of which are to be applied to the purchase of a library for public use and benefit. The objects of this society are for the improvement and advancement of literary science and useful knowledge. It is the purpose, we are informed, of the society to purchase a good library to be accessible to all upon liberal terms. We hope the lecture will be largely attended, as we doubt not it will be highly interesting and instructive, and the object is very commendable.

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—In our advertising columns will be found a notice of Mr Vinton's appointment to lecture on the subject of Temperance, at the M E Church this evening. Mr. Vinton is a speaker at once humorous and instructive, and in the more solid portions of his discourse, impressive and convincing. No person who may attend the Church this evening will consider the time ill-spent—on the contrary, we feel sure that all will be benefited by hearing so important a subject ably treated.

NEW ENGINE COMPANY.—An effort is on foot to organize another Fire Engine Company in this city, to be called Protection Engine Company No. 5. At a meeting of those interesting in this Company, held on the evening of the 25th, Messrs Joseph Bergman, W N. Patton, and W. H. Davis were appointed a committee to procure funds sufficient to purchase an Engine for the Company. May success crown their efforts.

BENEFIT.—We are requested to announce that a complimentary benefit has been tendered Mr. J. P. Denison by the Opera Troupe which have been for some time playing at his Opera House. The benefit takes place tonight in the Willamette Theatre, and it is hoped will be largely attended. We understand that an excellent programme is offered for the occasion, presenting several new features well worth going to see.

THE ENGLISH SUSTAINING THE REBELS.—It is reported that three of the finest steamers on the Clyde—the Iona, the Giraffe and the Clydesdale—have been sold to the Confederate Government. The Liverpool Telegraph (Secesh) says:

"Beside the commissions committed to other ship builders by the Confederate Government, which are being pushed forward with all possible dispatch, a large iron plated ram is being constructed on the river Mercer without any attempt being made at concealment. This ram will be of the most formidable character, and will attempt to run the blockade at Charleston."

The same journal says that a vessel is lying at Liverpool taking in a cargo of iron plates, destined for plating a Southern vessel which is awaiting their arrival at Charleston. It is stated that the British steamer Lloyds, which ran the blockade at Charleston and arrived at Halifax, had been insured at premiums as high as sixty guineas per cent.—Sac. Union.

REBEL ATROCITIES.—It has been stated, we think, that the Indian outbreak and massacre of women and children in Minnesota was the indirect, if not the positive work of the rebel leaders. Monstrous as this assertion is, it is true by their own confession. The proof is in the following paragraph, which we cut from the Richmond Dispatch of September 24th:

AS WE EXPECTED.—The Yankees are about to send their army captured at Harper's Ferry against the Indians. Has the Government no means of retaliating for such a breach of faith?"

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO SANITARY FUND.—Before acknowledged, $12,588 25.

From Oregon City, (additional) $169 50, J O Hall, Forest Grove, 2, O P Lent, Portland, 5; Weeks, Gilmore & Co, (monthly subscription) 15; Kinney & Quin, 20; from citizens of Peoria, Linn county, 93 50, as follows:—J W Pugh, W Churchill, 10 each, H R Holmes, S A Smith, A H Osborn, A W Holmes, W M Allen, A Pugh, R Johns and ..., 5 each; J Davis, J F McCartney, J Martin, J Robinett, W P Smith, B Cutler, W Purdy, J Rector, W McAlester, 2 50 each, J Woods, 3; J M Coon, H Cummings, 2 each, E S Shankling, O Bears, J McNeal, 1 each, E Hays, L Grubb, 50 cents each. Total—$12,833 25. A HOLBROOK.

It is no crime in Memphis to pass counterfeit rebel money. Nathan Levi, who was arrested on the charge of trading off eight hundred dollars of counterfeit Confederate notes for two hundred and forty dollars Tennessee money, was discharged, Confederate notes not being legal money.

NORTH CAROLINA.—Several Union meetings have been held in this State lately, and they were largely attended. Secession there is ... on the decline.

FAMILY

SEWING MACHINES

ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—AND—

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction and easily kept in order; should make a seam ... alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton thread, or silk directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and thick to thin with rapidity and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity, and should have a straight needle—curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer, should stitch, fell, run and gather, and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel feed, no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, or ravel.

The undersigned are General Agents for the general supervision of these unrivalled machines for Pacific States and Western Coast of Mexico.

DR. BAKER'S

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any how ever delicate to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected and you will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally, morning noon and night, it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhoea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time, it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea. It will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.
